1. Sir, before I can proceed, and for the benefit of all parties and the truth, I wish to ask some precautionary questions to ascertain a level of clarity and understanding here today; are there any objections from the court?
2. For and on the record sir, are you here to be honest and to serve unbiased justice to all parties today?
3. For and on the record sir, to assist all parties today will you fully clarify and explain anything that I do not fully grasp, conceive, get, take in, follow, and make sense of, or fathom?
4. For and on the record sir, is this court legally registered?
5. It is my understanding that a registered name is a legal title; is it not..? For and on the record sir.
6. It is my understanding that a legal title is also a legal fiction; is it not..? For and on the record sir.
7. It is my understanding that fiction is something fundamentally not true; can you confirm or deny this? For and on the record sir.
8. It is my understanding that Acts, statutes, legal titles, artificial persons and names are legal fictions, and therefore fundamentally not true; is this correct sir, for and on the record?
9. So this court is a registered legal entity, and therefore a legal fiction sir, for and on the record?
10. If Acts, statutes and legislation, legal titles, artificial persons and names are legal fictions and therefore fundamentally not true, how can this court, another legal fiction, possibly operate in truth and with equality under the law? For and on the record sir.
