

The Great 'Penal Sum' Court Remedy

www.thetruthwillout.com

In court the government (corporation) agents need you (man/woman) to attach yourself to the strawman/artificial entity. They also need your consent to the subsequent express (written, clearly stated offers/agreements) and implied (assumed/attached/unspoken) offers of contract/agreement. They can obtain your consent in many ways such as your acquiescence (silence), answering their questions with a statement (master – slave) and allowing them to address you as the strawman/legal fiction entity.

If they do keep trying this last one even after you have clearly explained that the strawman isn't you, simply say, "I grant you that courtesy." This takes care of the problem and doesn't get you into any controversy. By the way, the government agents really dislike this technique, so have fun and remember the legal world is laughable.

Now what the courts do NOT want you to know is that inside the judges/magistrates private file (the Clerk only has access to the public file which is very different) there exists a great remedy; this is called the 'penal sum', or some like to call it the 'True Bill'. Now this penal sum (a sum agreed upon in a bond, to be forfeited if the condition of the bond is not fulfilled – Blacks Law 5th Edition) is basically the total outstanding amount (set by a bond) to cover the whole case on that particular day. (By the way it will also have VAT attached to it; sounds very much like a run for profit business does it not?)

Now you might believe you are in court to assist the government agents, corporative police authorities and the legal fiction strawman in say an alleged £50.00 speeding ticket, yet the penal sum amount will be much higher, and if this amount does not get settled then the strawman will receive a fine and penalty points etc as punishment for not settling the accounts in this matter. Yet if this secretive amount gets taken care of with 'accepted for value', then the case is terminated as no further debt/liability exists to act upon on.

By the way, the penal sum remedy works in all alleged statutory offences, not just speeding tickets etc.

Now once you have worked through creating the void between you and the strawman and have this on record, it is time to deal with the great hidden remedy matter at hand...the penal sum.

1. For and on the record sir, will you be fair, open and honest here today and assist me in assisting the court?
2. What is the penal sum for this case? (Now this will get a response that might surprise you; as your question will surprise them all! If they try to squirm on this issue, try, "For and on the record sir, are you refusing to disclose the penal sum and therefore obstructing me in attempting to settle this matter?")
3. To assist me in assisting the court, can you please hand it to me?

4. (Now your pen comes out for the - Accepted for Value, Returned for Settlement, Pre-paid Exemption # NI NUMBER, signature & date – written across the penal sum sheet)
5. For and on the record sir, I have now accepted the penal sum for value and returned it to you for settlement. It is my understanding that this action has now effected payment for the full amount regarding this case; is this not correct?
6. For and on the record sir, I require a true and full copy of the transcript of this case within the next 3 days, as well as a true copy of the accepted for value penal sum; will you make sure of these matters please?
7. It is my understanding that my assistance in this matter today is now finished with; does the court possess any evidence to show otherwise?
8. For and on the record sir, I am now leaving this court under my own free will; good day to you all.

The 'Penal Sum' technique is extremely powerful and therefore the government agents are not going to want to give this information up easily. Like all the questions that appear on this site, get a feel for them and make them your own. If you have to go to court then get at least two matters confident in you; splitting the artificial entity from the real man/woman, and accepting the penal sum for value.

And remember the word 'Refusal'. If you can get on the record that they are refusing to cooperate/assist in any way, it is all going terribly wrong for them! Refusal is a big 'NO-NO' in commercial/admiralty courts. You are the Sponsor of the Credit on this planet and have the ability to take care of the whole case. Wake up to the remembrance of what you really are. Study why and how AFV works. Accept everything with your signature and National Insurance/Social Security Pre-Paid Account Number...and most of all have fun!

Hope these questions assist you in growing more confident with the fictional and laughable legal system.
